CODE OF CONDUCT FOR FORMER PASTORS

- A-14.0100 The purpose of the Code of Conduct is to clarify the role of the former pastor, no matter what kind of pastoral position that pastor occupied. A former pastor is former, not a present, pastor. During any time period when the church is without a person in a pastoral role, the ruling elders shall call either the moderator or the presbytery office for guidance. This is to ensure that the church members receive adequate pastoral care. Please honor the former pastor's decision to sever ties with the congregation. The people of the congregation will need encouragement to move forward.
- A-14.0200 The secondary and equally important purpose of this policy is to enable the new pastor, no matter what kind of pastoral position this pastor occupies, to bond with the congregation.
- A-14.0300 This document shall be shared with the pastor and session by the representatives of the presbytery as soon as they hear of the proposed departure.

PASTOR PROVISIONS:

- A-14.1000 Since it is often difficult for a pastor and members of the congregation to break the bonds built over the years of ministry together, the Presbytery of Huntingdon requires all pastors as they leave the congregation to adhere to the following:
- A-14.1100 1. If I am called by a parishioner about a pastoral concern, I will explain that I can no longer be involved, and he/she should go to the pastor or session to let them know the concern.
- A-14.1200 2. If a member of the congregation approaches me with a concern about the present moderator/pastor, I will tell him or her to talk to the current pastor or session to let them know the concern.
- A-14.1300 3. If I am asked to officiate at a baptism, wedding or funeral or to participate in a service of worship, I will defer to the pastor/moderator.
- A-14.1400 The former pastor shall share this resolution with the session/congregation before the dissolution of the pastoral relationship is final. This agreement shall be reviewed with the pastor at the exit interview. The Committee on Ministry shall review this statement with the session at the first meeting after the pastor has left.
- A-14.1500 The pastor is required to acknowledge receipt of a copy of this policy and to signify her or his willingness to abide by its provisions by signing a copy of this policy and returning it to the presbytery office at the time of the conclusion of his or her pastoral relationship. The teaching or commissioned ruling elder may perform no further pastoral duties in this presbytery until this form has been signed and returned to the presbytery office.
- A-14.1600 Failure to abide by the provisions of this policy may result in disciplinary action and will result in note(s) being placed in the teaching or commissioned ruling elder's presbytery files and will be communicated in reference checks.

| I acknowledge receipt of the above policy and agree to abide by its provisions. |   |                                      |

| A-14.2100   | 1. It is the session's responsibility to provide pastoral care for the members of the congregation. They will refer members with need of pastoral services to the current pastor and/or moderator. At all times they will make clear that former pastors are not to be invited to provide pastoral services currently.    |                                      |
| A-14.2200   | 2. If the session receives information that a former pastor has been called by a parishioner about a pastoral concern, the ruling elders of the session will explain that the former pastor can no longer be involved and that the parishioner should contact the current moderator or pastor.                            |                                      |
| A-14.2300   | 3. If a member of the congregation has a concern about the present moderator or pastor, he/she should be directed to contact the current pastor or session directly to let them know the concern.   |                                      |
| A-14.2400   | 4. The session is required to acknowledge receipt of this policy and to signify its willingness to abide by its provisions by signing a copy of this policy and returning it to the presbytery office at the conclusion of the pastoral relationship. The form will also be signed by a representative of the presbytery. |                                      |
